Maximizing Learning Potential

Learning Connections Resources publishes practical tools to help create innovative learning solutions for learners of all ages. At some point everybody experiences learning challenges whether in the classroom, lecture hall, or boardroom. The key to learning is recognizing how we each process the world around us, using a common vocabulary, and developing personal strategies to overcome any learning challenge.

Learning Connections Resources (LCR) provides tools and services that focus on helping every individual develop situational awareness and overcome the most challenging of tasks. Intuition tells us that each person sees the world through a different lens, LCR has developed an easy to use tool that reveals the interaction of our learning processes and how to use them with intention.

The Learning Connections Inventory© (LCI) is a statistically valid and reliable instrument that measures the degree to which a person uses four interactive patterns of learning and operation. The LCI reveals the level at which one seeks:

Sequence – Order, planning & organization

Precision – Accuracy, detail & information

Technical Processing – Problem solving, relevance & autonomy

Confluence – Ideas, uniqueness & expression

LCR in Education

Learning Connections Resources can provide you with the tools essential to discover and understand learning processes in the K-12, Higher, and Adult Education arenas. The LCI empowers the individual learner by employing and facilitating:

- A common learning process vocabulary
- Understanding the affects of the system of education
- Developing personal learning strategies
- Teaching vs. learning
- Moving students from “at risk” to “on guard”

LCR at Work

Simply stated... what is your competitive advantage? No matter what the industry or service, the most important resource for any organization is the human resource. Learning Connections Resources can support your organization in achieving exceptional performance and help your personnel to:

- Improve communication
- Increase productivity
- Boost morale
- Innovate job re-training
- Define leadership
- Reveal your espoused theory vs. theory in use
- Respect and use diversity

LCR at Home

Relationships with family and friends can be a roller coaster ride. Learning Connections Resources can build bridges and make personal connections with family members by providing common ground to appreciate individual talents, goals, and desires. The LCI can be used to help:

- Reduce frustrations
- Identify personal disconnects
- Communication
- Career planning
- Value relationships
- Reveal the roots of depression
